Aldbrough WI .

The January meeting held in the Methodist School Room was presided over by the newly elected President Ms. Angela Dunn she welcomed 13 members and received 5 apologies of absence. WI business was conducted and included the WI AGM in Cardiff to be held on 1st June 2013, the proposed resolutions were discussed. There were 2 resolutions for consideration. 1st:- the decline of our local High Street and town Centres. 2nd:- Resolving to keep young people suicide -safe on line. There was short but healthy debate about the proposed resolutions. There is to be fashion Show at Skipsea on the 3rd April. The squares that members had been knitting over the past months has resulted in 3 single blankets been completed and a 4th started. The President thanked those who had knitted squares and asked for members to continue with their good work.

A Pie and Pea supper was then consumed. This was followed by members taking part in round one of the WI Federation quiz Mrs. Lynn Wright acted as quiz master.

Next meeting: - 4th February 7-30 pm in the Methodist School Room. Guest Speaker to be Jenny Hunt, on the subject of Bats. Anyone considering joining the WI please come along and warm welcome will be waiting.
