Most of the meeting consisted of a discussion about the future and direction of the group.

All of our recent even children's events have been poorly attended.

We will write an article for the next village newsletter to try and raise some enthusiasm.

We may well need to consider if it is worth continuing with the Village Association. It would be a pity to disband the group but it does feel like we are fighting a losing battle by continuing to run events that are poorly attended.

Meeting closed at 9pm
